Hello Mail Order Colleague,

If you love mail order marketing as much as I do, then you're constantly trying to find a way to make a living from this wonderful medium.

Hi, My name is John Kirkman. You may or may not know me. But if you've been around mail marketing for some time, I'm sure you've seen my successful ads and programs at some point.

For more than 30 years I have been designing and promoting "work at home mail order marketing programs and services". Mail order marketing is my full time "job" and conducted from my home office and work shop. Sitting on 5 acres all paid in full. Yep, mail order has been good to me.. As it can be to you too.

And yes, I do make a comfortable living at it - so can you or anyone else that sets their mind to it. For years I used strictly postal mail services to do business. Over the past several years I gradually introduced Internet technology into my programs and services. To make them more profitable for you.

The Internet has developed into a serious aspect of mail order marketing - although it had a shaky start as many of us tried to find ways to make it a compatible tool for mail marketing. Now it is an absolute must. Problem is, most dealers and prime sources do not understand how to use the Internet properly.

The speed, power and cost effectiveness of such things as E-Net advertising has evolved mail order marketing into a new force - it is legitimate and can save you 85% and more on ads.

Years ago I found that by combining mail order money making opportunity programs with advertising services and including free dealerships AND THE INTERNET, was the way to make money.

This allows the small home-based dealer on a limited advertising budget to not only be involved in good professional quality and profitable commission programs... You can also enjoy promoting them at deep discounts of 50% and more.

Finally, it's truly a win-win situation for us all. Please take time to review the enclosed programs and services and you'll quickly see exactly what I mean. Pay particular attention to my offers for E-Net advertising - they are powerful dealership programs and allow you to advertise more for much less.

Fondest regards and I look forward to hearing from you soon,

John Kirkman

P.S. There are no other mail order marketing methods or systems in existence that even come close to reaching more qualified prospects or offering you better dealership commission pay outs than what you'll find in this Ad Magazine. You have my word on it! All my personal offers have my guarantee to be as represented.
