Rome's Challenge to Protestants:
"Why Don't You Keep Holy the Sabbath Day?"

I am going to propose a very plain and serious question to those who follow "the Bible and the Bible only" to give their most earnest attention. It is this: Why do you not keep holy the Sabbath Day?

"The command of Almighty God stands clearly written in the Bible in these words: 'Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God, in it thou shalt not do any work.' Exodus 20:8-10.

"You will answer me, perhaps, that you do keep the Sabbath: for that you abstain from all worldly business and diligently go to church, and say your prayers, and read your Bible at home every Sunday of your lives.

"But Sunday is not the Sabbath day. Sunday is the first day of the week; the Sabbath day is the seventh day of the week. Almighty God did not give a commandment that men should keep holy one day in seven, but He named His own day, and said distinctly: 'Thou shalt keep holy the seventh day'; and He assigned a reason for choosing this day rather than any other—a reason which belongs only to the seventh day of the week, and cannot be applied to the rest. He says: 'For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day and hallowed it.' Exodus 20:11; Genesis 2:1-3. Almighty God ordered that all men should rest from their labor on the seventh day, because He too had rested on that day: He did not rest on Sunday, but on Saturday. On Sunday, which is the first day of the week, He began the work of creation: He did not finish it. It was on Saturday that He ended His work which He had made: and God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it He had rested from all His work which God created and made.' Genesis 2:2-3.

"Nothing can be more plain and easy to understand than all this: there is nobody who attempts to deny it. It is acknowledged by everybody that the day which Almighty God appointed to be kept holy was Saturday, not Sunday. Why do you then keep holy the Sunday and not Saturday?

"You will tell me that Saturday was the Jewish Sabbath, but that the Christian Sabbath has been changed to Sunday. Changed! But by whom? Who has authority to change an express commandment of Almighty God? When God has spoken and said, 'Thou shalt keep holy the seventh day,' who shall dare to say, 'Nay, thou mayest work and do all manner of worldly business on the seventh day; but thou shalt keep holy the first day instead?' This is a most important question, which I know not how you answer.

"You are a Protestant, and you profess to go by the Bible and the Bible only; and yet, in so important a matter as the observance of one day in seven as the holy day, you go against the plain letter of the Bible, and put another day in the place of that day which the Bible has commanded. The command to keep holy the seventh day is one of the Ten Commandments; you believe that the other nine are still binding. Who gave you authority to tamper with the fourth? If you are consistent with your own principles, if you really follow the Bible, and the Bible only you ought to be able to produce some portion of the New Testament in which this fourth commandment is expressly altered."

Excerpts from "Why Don't You Keep Holy the Sabbath Day?" pages 3-15 in The Chain Breaker, Volume 4, published by the Roman Catholic Church in 1869.

DATELINE SUNDAY LAW NEWSBRIEF

A recent news article that appeared in the Detroit News on July 7, 1998 revealed the pope's stern call for Sunday legislation. The Pope was quoted as saying that a violator should be "punished as a heretic." The following are excerpts from that article.

"In a day when computer modems are never fast enough and no one seems to have enough time for a full night's rest, Pope John Paul II is issuing a stern warning to Catholics that they should set aside Sunday for worship—not errands or their free time. 'This really is an extraordinary move,' said Jay McNally, executive director of Call to Holiness, a Metro Detroit lay group that promotes traditional Catholic teachings. 'This appears to be the strongest words the pope has issued. Period.'

"The pontiff used his weekly address Sunday from his window over St. Peter's Square to urge church members to make time to keep the Sabbath holy. And today, the Vatican is expected to issue an Apostolic letter from the pope further stressing the Third Commandment. Apostolic letters are incorporated into church rules.

"Sundays have come to be 'felt and lived only as a weekend,' John Paul lamented Sunday. 'It (should be) the weekly day in which the church celebrates the resurrection of Christ. In obedience to the Third Commandment, Sunday must be sanctified, above all, by participation in Holy Mass.'

"In his letter, the pope goes on to say a violator should be 'punished as a heretic,' said McNally, who read an unofficial English translation of the letter on a Vatican Web site.

"...Though the pope's letter is directed at Catholics, his concerns reach beyond the Vatican and into other religions."

Rome's Challenge

- Here is Rome's argument against Sunday as the Biblical day of rest.
- Yet, the Catholic church's leaders are pushing for a national Sunday law.
- How will this affect our nation spiritually?
